CALL FOR ARTISTS PROPOSALS FOR STANLEY MARTIN'S GATEWAY-WEST IN HYATTSVILLE
CALL FOR ARTISTS ISSUED

Hyattsville, MD – The Hyattsville Community Development Corporation (HCDC) is accepting artist proposals for an iconic, permanent public artwork for the entrance to Stanley Martin's new Gateway-West Development, until August 17th. A $35,000.00 stipend will be provided to the chosen artist/team. The sculpture will be installed by December 1, 2022. The sculpture will be located on the west side of Belcrest Road, located prominently across from the Gateway West community signage, in clear view of transiting vehicular traffic and for the enjoyment of pedestrians.

Coming soon to Hyattsville is the Gateway-West community, it will welcome a new neighborhood. The developer, Stanley Martin Homes, is building 331 urban-style garage townhomes in the Prince George's County community of Hyattsville at Gateway West. From 2020 to 2022, Stanley Martin Homes built three- and four-level townhomes in nearby Riverfront at West Hyattsville, just steps from the West Hyattsville Metro station. New homes at Gateway West are expected to start selling Fall of 2022.

The new homes at Gateway West offer spacious living areas, bedrooms and outdoor living space. The new urban-style townhomes will feature three distinctive low-maintenance 1- and 2-car garage designs to choose from, ranging from two to four bedrooms with the option to expand living space with an added 4th floor in several of the Smart Selected Homes.
