HYATTSVILLE, MD (August 30, 2011) – The Gateway Arts District's Management Team invites stakeholders and community members to celebrate its successful re-designation as a state-certified Arts and Entertainment District. The celebration kicks off at the Gateway Arts District's newest cultural asset, Hyattsville's Busboys & Poets on Wednesday September 14th from 6:00 to 8:30 pm

The Launch Party will feature the unveiling of the new Gateway Arts District logo as well as a demonstration of the revamped Gateway Arts District website including its newest feature – the Artist Locator Tool. These marketing pieces, as well as a new Gateway Arts District brochure, were produced by the Gateway Arts District Management Team with project management provided by the Hyattsville and Gateway CDC's

The MyGatewayArts website is a FREE online portal for promoting and learning about arts-related activities in the Gateway Arts District. It's also the community's best tool to market or search for artists, designers and arts-related organizations and businesses in the Gateway Arts District

The Prince Georges County Gateway Arts and Entertainment District is funded by grants from the Maryland National Park and Planning Commission and Prince George's County Councilman Will Campos Staff support is provided by the Gateway and Hyattsville CDC's.

Free to attend. Cash Bar and Menu. Please RSVP to mgumpert@gateway-cdc.org
